

Biodiversity gain plan

Submit a biodiversity gain plan to show how your development will achieve biodiversity net gain.

When to use this form

A biodiversity gain plan shows how a development will achieve 10% biodiversity net gain (BNG). Submit this form to your local planning authority after they approve your planning application.

Unless your development is exempt, you cannot start the development until the LPA approves your biodiversity gain plan and biodiversity metric calculation tool.

4. Biodiversity net gain strategy

4.1 Is the relevant date for the pre-development biodiversity value the same date as the planning application?

- ☒ Yes
☐ No

4.2 If no, what earlier date did you agree with the LPA?

N/A

4.3 How have you met the guidance on ‘what counts towards your BNG’?

Find out what you can count towards a development's BNG

Landscaping within the developed site has been designed for biodiversity as far as practicable, include a range of new native tree and scrub species, an ecological buffer on the eastern boundary and the new dwellings and associated infrastructure. These measures will provide valuable new habitats at the site and will benefit a range of wildlife.

4.4 How will you avoid or minimise impacts to habitats?

Tell us about the steps you've taken on site, including to avoid or minimise the impact on irreplaceable habitats.

There are no irreplaceable habitats at the site. The site comprises agriculturally 'improved' horticultural land of low ecological value, all of which will be lost to make the site viable for housing. Key ecological features, namely the tree lines, have been retained. Habitat loss has been minimised as far as possible to meet the needs of the development.

4.5 Did you use your local nature recovery strategy to inform the strategic significance of habitats?

This includes other specified strategies if you do not have a local nature recovery strategy.

☒ Yes

☐ No

4.6 How will you achieve the target net gain percentage?

6.1 Survey date

For example, 3/11/2023

17/03/2023 and 06/02/2024

6.2 Survey constraints

For example, access issues, weather, or seasonal constraints.

The visibility of plant species varies throughout the year, however the UKHab habitat survey was undertaken in March and updated in February, when many plant species are in a vegetative (non-flowering) state. While this may have limited the overall number of plant species recorded on the site, all vegetative plants encountered were readily identifiable and habitats could easily be characterised and assessed. This is not considered a significant limitation overall. There were no significant limitations to the BNG Assessment.
