

APPLICATION NO:

BN/122/19/EIS

I agree that there would seem to be little to be gained from any further detailed assessment of the archaeological interest that might be present. However, it would be prudent for the EIA to contain a short consideration of the general potential of the area, not least as a guideline to the mitigation measures that could be required.

James Kenny
Archaeology advisor
24/12/2019