Dear Mr Cole,

We wanted to show you these pictures from Spring last year. This is the Barnham Rife behind Barnham station that runs right behind our property in Marshall Close.
This is one of the reasons we are gravely concerned about having a housing development built. All surface water etc will only make the risk of flooding higher, as the Environment Agency also reports.
Regardless of whatever 'pipe' use to attempt to divert the water, it will not work and our home like in 2012 will be under water again.
Living with this fear is exceptionally stressful, we work hard as Nurses, we are not rich and the financial worry of our property flooding is not helping.

Thank you for your considerations.

Kind Regards,

Sydnee and Richard Kalinski
