Dear Nicky, further to your email regarding the validation requirements for a Lawful Development Certificate. Please find attached the following:

1. Location Plan 1:1250
2. Block Plan 1:500
3. Floor Plan (Existing & Proposed) 1:50
4. Elevations (Existing and showing new velux window to rear elevation) 1:50

The latter two are hand drawn to scale, I hope these are sufficient for your purposes. Please advise otherwise.

Kind regards

Nigel

Dear Neil, thank you for your letter dated 24th February. Having confirmed that I would like to proceed with a Lawful development certificate rather than full planning permission, I hadn't appreciated that additional information would be required. The online process for an LDC doesn't request this information.

As the proposal is an upgrade to an existing structure, perhaps you could clarify before I embark on pulling this information together.

Many thanks
