Maria

Please see below an image from google maps showing the existing large kiosk, above the existing fence line

The new one, (photo image below), will look very similar, just smaller; approx. 1.75m high x 0.75m deep x 2.0m wide on a concrete plinth

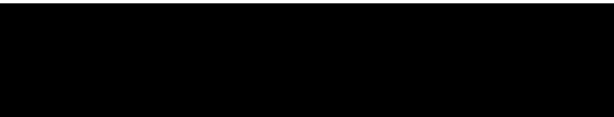

I trust that this is acceptable

Regards
Gary

Not really – that is only one elevation. Ask them for the others but add the one elevation we have to the presentation. Also amend the report update to make it clear it is the existing fence not a new one.

Hi Maria

As discussed, the only item above ground (same as existing) is a kiosk, however the new one is much smaller;. approx. 1.75m high x 0.75m deep x 2.0m wide see below extract

The exiting fencing around the "underground" chambers will remain .

I trust that this is acceptable to you

Gary

Gary,

There is a new requirement from my manager, an elevation of the proposal site showing what will be above the ground.

Since as a trained architect I have a good imagination, I didn't need it but the rest do.
It would be probably useful for all Cllrs.

Kind regards

Maria
