Subject: RE: Planning Consultation on: BN/1/15/PL

At the meeting of Barnham Parish Council on 2nd March the Council considered the above application and agreed to object to the application for the following reasons:

The Council do not wish to see any further erosion of the use of agricultural land for full-time residential accommodation and feel that leaving this condition in place would control this issue. To remove the condition would set a precedent that would enable the applicant and other landowners in the Parish to make further applications to build more full-time residential accommodation on agricultural land.
