Subject: RE: Planning Consultation on: BN/22/14/PL

Dear Sirs

I don't usually respond to applications if when the Parish Council consider an application they raise no objection as your notice below says that if no response received you will assume no objection. However, in respect of this application I have been asked by Simon Davis to respond to confirm that at it's meeting on 12th May the Parish Council considered the above application and agreed to raise no objection.

Just as a matter of interest is my process ok or do you wish me to respond to every application even those the Parish Council do not have an objection to?

Alison Crabb

Barnham Parish Clerk
