Dear Simon

Many thanks for providing us with an update and advising us of the progress.

Given that the visibility splay was originally resubmitted by Folkes Architects on 17th November, but wasn't loaded onto the portal for highways comment until we sent a second chaser email on 30th November enquiring why this hadn't been done, we are unhappy with this delay. I understand that it is also not the fault of the highways department, but is it possible for you to chase them up please and see if they are able to respond before the end of next week?

We appreciate your support with this and understand that you have just taken on the case, but anything you can do to hurry this along would be greatly appreciated due to the significant delays we have already experienced with our application.

Many thanks in advance
Siobhan & Oli Strudwick
