Dear Ms Murphy,

BN/2/19/L

Just to keep you updated unfortunately my manager is not in the office today so the application won't be signed off until next week as there is none else in to issue the decision.

I have recommended approval so hopefully you should receive it by Monday.

Thank-you and apologies for the delay.

Kind Regards

Amber Willard

Hi Amber

I have a bit of reading to do to catch up! Normally it was the case that outside London, the LPA had to notify the Secretary of State for Home, Communities and Local Government of the intent to grant Listed Building Consent where works related to a Grade II* listed building. The SoS then had 28 days in which to instruct the LPA of their decision to either allow LBC to be granted or not.

However, I now see that requirement was repealed. So apologies for the confusion!

Dear Ms Murphy,

Thank you for your email.

Can I just check when you refer to SoS are you referring to Historic England.

I have had consultation from them in which they wish refer to the conservation officer views. This is in the process of being uploaded online.

Thank-you

Amber Willard

Dear Ms Willard

I appreciate that there are procedures to progress in respect of this application due to the Grade of the listed building. However, could you please provide me with an update on progress. I have checked on line and see that the PC and your own Conservation Officer raised no objections. I have not seen a notification to the SoS and with the 8 week date not far off, I am concerned that if the SoS have 28 days that waiting until 30/3 will mean an instruction would take another 28 days.

Many thanks in advance for your assistance.
