Dear Mr Davies,

I have just been looking at this one with a view to putting the decision through. However, I have a couple of queries:

(1) You state that the bricks will be Terca Wienerberger Kassandra. However, the only Kassandra bricks I can find on their website is the Multi which is mostly red in colour. Your drawings suggest a much lighter brick colour. Is this right? If it is not the multi then please provide me with a web link to the correct brick.

(2) You state that the roof tiles will be Traditional Clay Roof Tiles Ltd Developer Range.
<http://traditionalclayrooftiles.co.uk/products/clay-roof-tile/developer-range/> lists 5 different tiles in this range. Please confirm which one you intend to use.

Kind Regards
