Thanks for the update.

I would suggest waiting until all the information is available. The information provided is confusing as there are 3 addresses on the documents –

Saxons,
Horseshoe Cottage
33A Hill Lane

I suggest it also comes from Sara Billingshurst. I'll pop a reminder in my calendar to contact again in a month or so to see where we are with the evidence.

Many thanks,
Julie

Dear Julie,

Please see attached.

Mark and Sara have been living with us next door at 33 whilst their house was being built. Therefore during this time their post etc was sent to them here at this address. Bank statements etc are under the address of 33 and not 33a. Due to delays with receiving the final certificate and replacing the development loan with a domestic mortgage, they have not been able to move into the property. I hope this will be soon.

The VAT has been claimed back by the builders.

The Land Registry has not yet provided the Title, I hope they will soon and I will forward it on to you when I receive it. I have heard that it does take some time for them to send it.

Please contact me if you need any more information.

Kind regards,

Sherryl Plumb
