Hi Maria,

Thanks for your email and I can confirm OK for extension of deadline of 28th September.

I'm assuming that we will have confirmation on that date?

Many thanks,

-Andrew

Hi Andrew,

This is rather embarrassing situation in which I have found myself now.

I have finished the report for an above application discharging imposed conditions, however my manager pointed out on the inadequate consultation period on this application due to the fact that a site notice was displayed late.

My previous job was for London Authorities so I am still learning my lessons.
Different rules apply here.

I am taking all the responsibility and do apologize since I have had confirmed that your decision will be on time.

Everything is finished, however we have to wait until the official consultation period (21 days) expires. It means, the decision can be issued not earlier than 28th September.

What is more, I would like to ask you for your confirmation of an extension of time with a new deadline on 28th September.

Kind regards

Maria

Hi Maria,

Quick question. As the date for responses has passed on this, are we OK to remove the yellow signs outside our property?

Many thanks,

-Andrew

Dear Maria,

Thank you for your email.

We can confirm glass will be single glazed with integral glazing bars, as in the rest of the property.

Kind regards,

Andrew

Dear Andrew,

Please see below the enquiry of our Conservation Officer.

I am looking at the discharge of condition application – it seems to be fine, but I note that there are no details of the glazing/glazing bars as per the condition? Do you know if these will be single or double glazed and if the glazing bars will be integral?

I would appreciate if you provide the above requested information.

Kind regards

Maria
