

The West Orangery Proposal

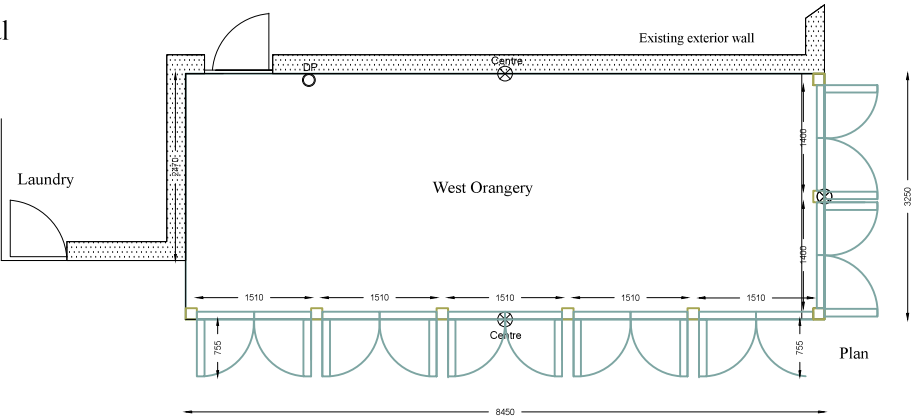

- Showing existing Barnham Court, and proposed arrangement of 5no. glazed panel double doors
- Oak Timber posts with Doric column and parapet detail
- Door openings 1510mm

- Side Elevation of West Orangery
- Showing arrangement of 2no.. glazed panel double doors and windows
  - Indicating roofline concealed behind parapet detail
  - Door openings 1400mm

The West Orangery Proposal
- Plan

|                                                                                                                               |                        |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------|
| JAMES HOLDERNESSLANDSCAPE DESIGN26 BARTLE ROADLONDONW11 1RF(44) 777 599 1887JAMES@JAMESHOLDERNESS.COM |                        |
| Client                                                                                                                        | Bolland/Martin         |
| Project                                                                                                                       | Barnham Court          |
| Title                                                                                                                         | West Orangery Proposed |
| Scale                                                                                                                         | 1:100 @ A3             |
| Date                                                                                                                          | 14.11.19               |
| Drawing No.                                                                                                                   | 169-10 Rev g           |