Dear Mr Sartin,

I have just been looking at your application.

You state that the flat conversion happened in the early 1900's. However, you have also supplied a letter from Anita Gardner dated 10/07/98 giving advice regarding a proposal to change the existing offices on first and second floors to residential. This suggests that the use of the first and second floors was at that time as offices - and this therefore counters your statement regarding early 1900's. As it stands, you have provided no evidence that the flat has been occupied continuously for at least 4 years. Are you able to provide evidence to support this? Things you may wish to consider are utility bill records, Council tax records, sworn statements from occupiers and neighbours.

Kind Regards
