This cannot go ahead there is absolutely no where to park in Longford Road - the place is over developed as is. Longford Road used to be a pretty little Road in Bognor Regis when I was a young child and the whole place is just gone downhill from all of these conversions. It's very difficult nowadays for families to find a house to buy and bring up their children. This house is valuable as is and doesn't need to be converted. My father lives in number 23 and has been complaining about the amount of noise from building works in number 21. He is rudely awakened at 7:00 a.m. every morning with noise. The house at number 21 has cut all of his plants and he's extremely worried about the noise pollution that's going to be coming from their garden. Eight people is too many.
