Dear Isabel

Further to my earlier email I have now spoken to a planning officer at Arun D.C and forward his email below.

May we now progress this matter as I have suggested without further ado.

Regards

Julian

Mr. Gore,

The Council will accept a statement of truth as evidence supporting an application for a certificate of lawfulness.

I hope that is of assistance,

Andrew Wood

CYBERCRIME ALERT – EXTREMELY IMPORTANT

As a result of the increased risk posed by internet banking fraud and cyber fraud and especially those relating to the bank account details of solicitors

(often by criminals intercepting emails and fraudulently changing legitimate bank account details to steal money), please note that the bank account details of Crosby & Woods Solicitors will NOT change during the course of a transaction.

Please do not send any monies to us until you have confirmed our bank details either by attending our offices in person or speaking directly with the Fee Earner with conduct of your matter to verify our firm's bank details.

We will not accept responsibility if you transfer money into an incorrect bank account.
Please ensure you act vigilantly and exercise extreme caution at all times before sending us monies and when opening emails with attachments/links or ones requesting your bank details.
