Dear Phil,

I started the report on Friday 16th and completed about 50% of it. Unfortunately, I was then ill all last week so was unable to work on it any further. I will next be able to work on the report on Thursday 6th December.

Kind Regards

Dear Simon

Please can we have a further update as you seem to have missed the last date for your report issue, and this application is now over 4 months old and way beyond a reasonable time frame. There is nothing since the 16 Nov on the website either.

Arun DC need to address this situation as the delays are unacceptable. Also given we have a structure that is not in a great structural conditions, as noted many times.

Regards
