

Heritage Statement
Internal Alterations
Parkside Flat, Hotham Park

General

The building was built in 1792 but converted into flats in 1977. We are proposing alterations to the basement flat that consists of no original features, as this would have been the servants' quarters. This area would have originally been very basic what we are proposing will bring the apartment up to 21st century living standards.

July 2012