Dear Mr Snelson,

I am sorry. I did think that it was one that I had changed but I couldn't see the new date on my screen. I have rectified our system now. You may therefore amend the date to say 21st. I usually put a bit of sellotape over the date to protect it from the rain.

Kind Regards

Dear Mr Davis.

Sorry to query this.

I hope I come across the right way. Its not easy in e-mails.

I looked back at my photograph of the original notice and this had been adjusted to read 21st?

Has this been done illegitimately? I note the adjustment is in biro!

Could you clarify if the notice has an error or not?

Thanks again for you continued attention.

Best regards

Matt

It's in the post today. Please note that the date on the notice cannot be altered (as it runs until Thursday 15th Nov) but you can still put the notice up.

Thanks

Dear Mr Snelson,

If you can give me your postal address, I will post you a couple of our yellow site notices so you can affix one to the telegraph pole.

Dear Mr Davis

Thanks for the information regarding your legal obligations.

Is there any way you could take a moment to re-instate the notice? As a kindness, I would be obliged to you.

I understand how busy you are but this matter is important to the community you represent. If you really can't, then please could you send me a copy of the notice and I will happily put it up. A few copies would be useful in case this happens again.

I have respect for the public service you do and make this request without prejudice.

With thanks for your time and consideration

Matt.

Dear Sir/Ma'am

The planning notice outside 75 Highfield Road Bognor Regis has been removed. This will lower residents awareness and prevent the correct feedback being given.

This would make any permission given unfair.

If it is appropriate please can the notice be replaced?

Thank you

Matt Snelson
