Dear Mr Brown,

I am writing, firstly to apologise for the delay in determining this application. I am also writing to let you know that the application has been written with an Officer recommendation to grant. Therefore, the application will need to go to Planning Committee in December 2018 (as this is a Council application). Therefore, I am requesting an extension of time till the 16th December to allow for Planning Committee to take place and for the decision to be issued.

I look forward to your response to the above matter, in reply to this email.

Yours sincerely

Richard Castro-Parker
