Whats the point of even objecting... Butlins always gets its way no matter how much they lie and deceive... They said studio 36 would be sound proof and for limited shows but in reality the music and shouting were horrendous causing a noise nuisance for the residents in the local area, i am not including in that comment the "Butlins Buddies" who live further away of course. They said the shows would end at 10pm but sometimes went on to 11.30pm +, The environmental health department said they were promised that Butlins would take remedial action LOLLOLOL... All Butlins did was move the DJ and loud music to the covered pavilion where the noise nuisance just got worse because only a thin piece of plastic stops the noise nuisance... It seems the environmental health department are next to useless in noise enforcement... Big business and corporate money speak louder than local residents health and well being... Butlins = lies and half truths, but at least Butlins give away out of date hampers to keep local residents happy.
