Dear Simon.

I have spoken to my solicitor. I understand that as ADC are the freehold owner, they need to be party to the Agreement. As such, our Estates team needs to issue a separate instruction to our Legal team and then be 'represented' by a different member of our legal team to keep things separate. I believe this has temporarily delayed progress being made.

If you have further questions on this then I would recommend that your clients solicitor make contact with ours (Caroline Perry) to discuss.

Kind Regards

Please note that essential maintenance is being carried out to the planning, building control and local land charges database during the week commencing 12 April 2021.

During this time there will be no public or staff access to any records held within this database, and it will not be possible to carry out any of the following tasks via the Arun website:

- Research planning and building control history
- View any planning applications, plans, agreements, tree preservation orders or competent persons data
- Submit building control applications
- Submit planning application comments
- Report any planning compliance issues

The publicity and consultation period for all planning applications that fall over this week will be extended by a further week to ensure no one is disadvantaged.

All other aspects of planning, building control and local land charges will be limited during this week and you are strongly advised to contact the individual departments before 12 April 2021 for specific restrictions during this time.

Dear Simon, can you give me an update on the application and case your solicitor to provide the agreement please?

I will need to go back to my client at least with an indication of timescales now.

Hope you are well and look forward to hearing from you soon.

Kind Regards
Simon
