There's still one line which needs to be removed, could you please amend this so the application can then be validated?

Kind Regards
Ms Malik

Good afternoon,

Thank you for your quick response.

This application is still invalid as the location plan has not been amended. The red outline must only be around the site boundary, whereas the one currently displayed is also around the property. I have attached a screenshot below and outlined the lines which must be removed in blue below. Please amend.

Along with this, I am on leave tomorrow returning on Tuesday 1st December, if you have any queries or need to return additional information please contact [REDACTED]

Kind Regards
Ms Malik

Good afternoon Iqraa
Thank you for forwarding the pdf as that one worked to fill in
Have attached same plus amended drawing as requested
Many thanks

Thank you for getting back to me.

Unfortunately, the location plan is still not correct as the red outline must only be around the site boundary, whereas the one currently displayed is also around the property. Please amend.

Have enclosed drawings requested but the Full Planning Application Forms from Arun web site are not opening for Adobe reader – says they are not compatible to open
Please send Full application forms so that I can complete this enquiry – have already spent hours trying different ways to overcome the problem.
Many thanks
