As they haven't responded, they won't be included. The table is an extract from the larger table I keep for all current 106's so I know what is going on with each.

Hi Simon,

Thanks.

I make this total £171,303 but it doesn't account for NHS – is there any way you can obtain this or provide a ballpark? Difference between £5k of £50k makes a difference you get my meaning.

Or, if they don't respond is there potential to say they have missed their window and it is £0?

Kind Regards,
