Dear Mr Thorpe,

I was not able to travel in to work today. However, I have managed to finish the report at home. I will now pass it to my Team Leader for his review.

I am sorry that you feel that you been strung along with numerous promises of when it will be dealt with. It was never my intention to do so. It is just that due to the sheer volume of work I have on, I felt that I could not be honest at the outset and tell you that the decision would take significantly longer than the original 8 week date.

I wonder in the circumstances, would it be possible for you to agree to an Extension of Time until the end of Thursday 01 March which will give my Team Leader time to review the report and issue the decision.

Kind Regards

Dear Mr Davis,

I have tried calling today and you are not in so I am not sure if you are dealing with the application today like you said you would be? We have been strung along with numerous promises of when it will be dealt with.

I will be sending in a stage one complaint tomorrow if we have not received the decision notice.

Kind regards,

Stephen Thorpe
