

Extracts from letting agent report showing state of windows and tenant's concerns

Extracts from letting agent report showing state of windows and tenant's concerns

Matters raised & requested by the tenant	The tenants reported that the windows are now falling apart. The wood is actually rotting and falling off in the reception room and bedroom. There is still black mould in the bedroom and patches of paint are peeling off.
General standards of cleanliness	Good
Carpet condition	Good
Hard flooring condition	Good
Interior decoration	Well maintained

