Dear Simon

My client has informed me that he has been simply clearing/tidying the rear of the building so as it looks more pleasant on the eye.

I trust that this information is of assistance. Please feel free to call me should you need any further clarification.

Best regards,

Hi Tim,

I've had communication from a ward Councillor to say that it has been reported to him that there is work going on at the rear of the site and it looks like the workers are continuing to build the car park area. Can you advise what works are currently going on as it may be the case that we can avoid having to send an enforcement officer out.

Kind Regards
