3 Description of Development

Outline application for one four bedroom house
Renewal of lapsed consent BR/147/01.

4 In pursuance of their powers under this Act and related Orders and Regulations the Council PERMIT this development to be carried out in accordance with the application and plan and subject to compliance with the conditions specified.

CONDITION 1 The permission hereby granted is an outline permission under Article 3(1) of the Town and Country Planning (General Development Procedure) Order 1995 and an application for the approval of the Local Planning Authority to the following matters must be made not later than the expiration of 3 years beginning with the date of this permission:-

(a)the external appearance of the building;
(b) the landscaping of the site;

Reason: To enable the Local Planning Authority to control the development in detail and to comply with Section 92 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended).

CONDITION 2 The development hereby permitted shall be begun either before the expiration of 5 years from the date of this permission, or before expiration of 2 years from the date of approval of the last of the reserved matters to be approved, whichever is the later.

Reason: To enable the Local Planning Authority to control the development in detail and to comply with Section 92 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended).

CONDITION 3 The building hereby permitted shall not be occupied until provision for car parking for both the existing dwelling and the proposed dwelling has been made within the site in accordance with details to be submitted to and approved by the Local Planning Authority and such provision shall thereafter be used only for the parking of cars.

Reason: To ensure that adequate and satisfactory provision is made for the parking of vehicles clear of adjacent highways in accordance with policies DEV1, DEV5 of the West Sussex Structure Plan and GEN7 of the Arun District Local Plan.

NOTES RELATING TO PLANNING APPLICATION
TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990

APPEALS TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE

If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the First Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

If you want to appeal, then you must do so within 6 months of the date of this notice using a form which you can get from the Planning Inspectorate, Customer Support Unit, Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol, BS1 6PN.

The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but he will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.

The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to him that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.

In practice, the Secretary of State does not refuse to consider appeals solely because the local planning authority based their decision on a direction given by him.

PURCHASE NOTICES

If either the local planning authority or the First Secretary of State refused permission to develop land or grants it subject to conditions, the owner may claim that he can neither put the land to a reasonably beneficial use in its existing state nor render the land capable of a reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted.

In these circumstances, the owner may serve a purchase notice on the District Council in whose area the land is situated. This notice will require the Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part VI of the Town & Country Planning Act 1990.
