Subject: RE: Planning Consultation on BR/336/17/DOC

Richard

As discussed, there appears to be confusion in some of the drawings they have submitted, as there are duplicate drawing numbers, but these are in fact different drawings, as they were revised without giving a different revision letter.

I have tried to identify the acceptable drawings from the unacceptable ones, and I have detailed this below (please note the page numbers refer to the public facing planning portal);

Drg no. SK3_5 – the one on page 2 is superseded. The one on page 1 is correct.

Drg no. SK3_4 Rev A – the one on page 2 is superseded. The one on page 1 is correct.

Drg no. SK3_2 rev C – the one on page 2 is superseded. The one on page 1 is correct.

Drg no. SK4_rev B – superseded by rev C which is correct (both drawing revisions on portal)

Drg no. SK3_3 Rev B – 2 copies on portal – one may be slightly different to the other??

SK3_7 – two copies on portal, both are superseded and therefore the correct drawing needs to be provided.

Hope this makes sense.

Regards
