Afternoon,

Afternoon please find attached the amended block plan, the measurements for the advertising and an amended existing floor plan showing the door does currently exist within the premises.

This all corresponds to BR/3/20/A and BR/2/20/PL planning applications.

I hope the attached items find you well.

Many Thanks,

Jessica Smith

Miss Smith,

If the door is existing and proposed you will not need an elevation.

Thank you,

Mrs Johnson

Thank you for this,

The door is already there and for some reason it wasn't on the existing plan but was on the proposed plan! So sorry for the confusion! I will get that amended and re send that through to you.

So Am I correct in think that I now won't need a to scale elevation plan as the door is already there?

Many thanks,

Jessica Smith
