Hi Sian

Sorry I thought I changed the date you have my permission to change it if that helps. Sorry for any inconvenience caused.

The other side elevation I thought as I live in a semi-detached house it wouldn't be needed?

Thank you for your help

Adam

Dear Mr Groome

Apologies that it's taken a while to get back to you regarding your application I was waiting on Daun from Arun council to get back to me in regards to the splay plan which you submitted which is fine.

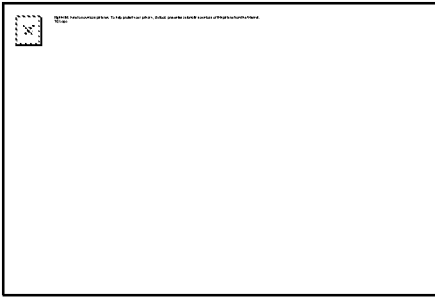

However your application is still invalid for the following reasons:

Certificate date too old: The certificate date which you have submitted is too old. I am able to change that for you with your written permission.

Other Side Elevation: Please submit the proposed other side elevation. Please submit this at a standard scale of 1:50 or 1:100.

Kind Regards

Sian
