

Written definitions on these documents shall also pre-emptively cover selected dimensions. Contractors shall verify and, if applicable, amend the dimensions and conditions on the project and the drawings to be included in any variations from the dimensions and conditions on the drawings. Contractors are deemed to have made themselves aware of the conditions prior to entering into any contract.

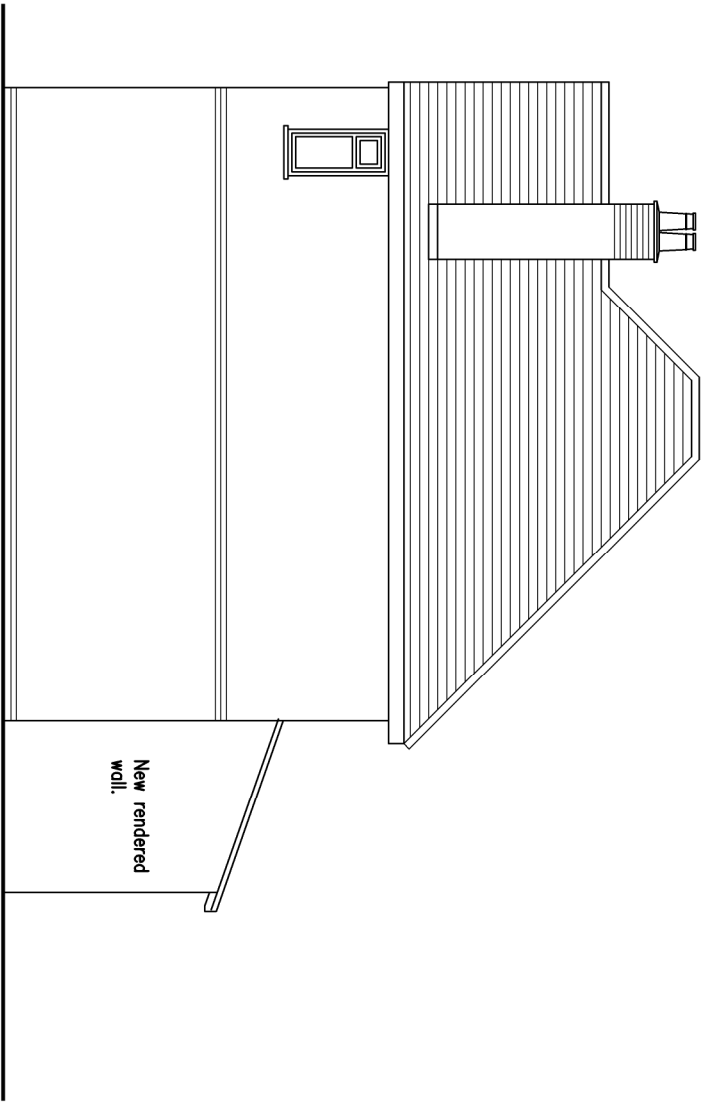

This drawing, like the project and the earth, is drafted. Copyright is reserved for me and the drawings I issued for conditions that it is not copied, reproduced, retained or disclosed to any unauthorized person, either wholly or in part without the consent in writing of the earth, project and me.
