

Planning Statement

The proposed fitting of exterior cladding will enhance the exterior of the property. The wood grain effect means the cladding is in keeping with the style of the house and fit in with surrounding properties in the area.

Additionally the cladding will help weatherproof and insulate the front exterior of the house at the first floor level.