Julian,

Following our conversation I confirm -

- The freehold went on the open market in July 2017 (see attached)
- A board was erected and it was marketed on a local and national basis
- The details were sent to 7071 parties via the database
- We had 557 requests for the details
- We had 15 parties who viewed the property with me and a closing date was set
- There were a total of 9 offers and all except one were from parties looking at an alternative use and primarily residential conversion
- The sale completed in September 2017 at £410,000

Please confirm safe receipt.

Regards

Nick Earee
Divisional Director

LOCATION

The Prince of Wales occupies a prominent site in a cul-de-sac with vehicular access via Highfield Road or Hook Lane. The property is also just to the east of Hotham Way (A259), to the north of the town centre and is also close to Bognor Regis railway station.

Bognor Regis itself is a seaside resort which is approximately 24 miles west of Brighton, 6 miles south east of Chichester and 16 miles east of Portsmouth. Other nearby towns include Littlehampton, Selsey, Felpham and Aldwick all of which are now suburbs of Bognor Regis.

DESCRIPTION

A traditional two storey detached brick built property under a pitched slate roof with single storey extension under a tiled roof all with painted elevations and painted black window frames.
