Subject: Planning Application BR/86/20/PL

Hi James

I note an amendment has been submitted to this application and a date for comments now of 5th June.

I'd be very grateful (from the horse's mouth) if you could advise please

That this application will go to Development Control

That there is now a new date for this application to be considered

Comments/objections to the original application will be 'carried over' and not need to be re-submitted.

The deadline for comments/objections has been extended until 5th June so comments/objections received too late before will now be added.

That my wish to speak to the debate as ward member is registered and still stands.

Hope this makes sense - sorry to bother you with this.

Best wishes
Jim Brooks
