Subject: Planning application BR/93/21/PL

Dear Mr Finlay

I am writing to lodge my objection to the above Planning Application.

The reasons being that granting the erection of a building of this type would set a precedent for people squeezing little buildings into their gardens;. In setting such a precedent, it would prevent the residents of this area from enjoying the space of a

In addition this type of building, (one store flat roofed) would not in any way enhance the look of the area and would surely bring down the price of houses in this rather nice,. otherwise not cluttered, area.

With thanks

Yours sincerely
