

Conservation Area Advisory Committee

Meeting Date : 5th May 2009

| App No                    | Description/Address                                                                                                                                                                   | Comment    | Recommendation/Observation                                                                       |
|---------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| AW/54/09/TC        | Fell 1 Leylandi Cypressus and reduce height of Bay stems by 30% within the Aldwick Bay Conservation Area202 Manor WayAldwick                                              | No Comment |                                                                                                  |
| AW/62/09/TC        | Application to fell 6 x Holm Oak & 1 x Bay Tree & replace with a Yew (Taxus) hedge (Within the Aldwick Bay Conservation Area (extended))Sea CrestThe CloseAldwick Bay | Objection  | These trees contribute greatly to the character of the area                                      |
| B/5/09/TC✓ | Fell two Pine trees within the Burpham Conservation Area.Burpham Farm HouseBurpham                                                                                        | Comment-   | The above tree man should be consulted prior to their being felled to confirm their significance |

ap

ap
pe

pc

Chairmans' signature .....

