To Whom it may concern,

I write in connection with the new The Bald Kitchen.

Located Bairds Farm Shop Garden Centre BN17 5SN

As our country slowly opens up and with households and friends coming together, we believe that a fresh spot with country views for people to meet would benefit our community.

Alongside this Cafe The Bald Builders have run a number of community events and helped and continue to help local businesses and charities including Chesnut Childrens Hospice. I believe this spot next to the aquarium store will allow those struggling with mental health issues to spend time outdoors in a safe environment meet with others and for carers somewhere else to go with the people they support.

As this is based outdoors with ample parking and on one level this is ideal for families with buggies, wheelchairs to enjoy a hot beverage after maybe visiting the garden centre or just to stop off and enjoy the views.

The Bald Builders are committed and passionate people who recently took part in Local Radio Station V2 (Spirit of the south) campaign to award our local hero's during the pandemic.

Your views as made above will be considered before the application is determined.

Please be aware that Planning Services operate an 'open file' policy and will publish your comments including your name and address on the website. Please make sure that you have only provided information that you are happy will be published in this way. If you have supplied information belonging to a third party, you must make sure you have their permission to do so. If you do not wish your comments to appear on the website or on the file you will need to confirm this by emailing to planning@arun.gov.uk and I will arrange for it to be destroyed although this means that the content will then be disregarded.

The majority of applications are determined under delegated powers by officers. Further information on the decision making process can be found on the website at :<https://www.arun.gov.uk/planning-decision-process>.

Some applications will be determined by the Development Control Committee, and I shall write and inform you of the date of the meeting and the procedures for public speaking if this is the case. However, if your representation has been received after the agenda for the meeting has been finalised and the notifications have been generated, you will not receive notification. In this case, you will need to track the progress of the application on the council's website <https://www.arun.gov.uk/weekly-lists>

Any comments that are received after the agenda has been finalised will be separately reported to the members of the Development Control Committee.

Regardless of how the application is determined I will notify you of the decision.

Yours sincerely

Neil Crowther
Group Head of Planning
