Dear Juan

Originally my client wanted to continue with the application. However, as confirmed in my last emails he subsequently instructed me to withdraw it. Which I have done.

Regards

Liz

Dear Ms Lawrence

I note that your client would like to continue with above application. However, on the instructions of your email dated 17 January the application was withdrawn. As a result a fresh application will be required if the aim is to continue with the proposal.

regards

Dear Sir/madam

I confirm that whilst my client would like to continue with the above application he has now sold the site to Mr A Crowley. Mr Crowley has his own planning consultant and so it makes sense for his agent Mr S Jupp to take over as agent for the application. As such I will no longer be acting as agent for this application.
