Dear Amber

I fully back CM/34/25/PL to move the beach car park inland near St Mary's School. The old one's gone to the sea and we need a safe replacement.

I am a regular visitor to the beach to swim, walk my dog and sometimes run, and there is never anywhere to park

My key points:-

1. No car park left at the beach – this fixes that.
2. Climping Street bans parking in summer – cars block lanes and deliveries.
3. St Mary's – parents park on the road, it's scary. Free school parking here would stop that.
4. Sea level rise will wipe out the coast – NPPF para 159 says move it inland.
5. The Black Horse is a short walk away – more visitors means more trade.
6. Climping Gap ends at Bread Lane (300m inland) – this site is 750m in, on farmland, no harm.
7. 750m walk to the beach is fine – I walk my dog twice that far.
8. Without this, everyone parks on Climping Street – no pavement, kids in the road. Dangerous.

Please approve with free school parking Mon-Fri.

Thank you for your consideration.

Ian Martindale
