Dear Mr Beard,

Yes. You will have the opportunity to object to any prospective 'reserved matters' application.

Kind regards,

Thanks for coming back to me Zac.

Sorry to bother you with this but does this mean I can still object later on?

FYI. the careful pruning has now cleared 2 acres of all trees and shrubs. They've even started on the trees adjacent to Horsmere Green Lane.

Thanks again.

Dear Mr Beard,

There are no plans that detail the elevations of the buildings, as at outline stage, this is not open for consideration.

Kind regards,

Zac

Hi Zac,

I'm wondering if you were able to point me to plans for the application that detail the building that will be adjacent to mine? I do have privacy issues and am concerned that I have not been able to identify whether or not these will be breached by the development.

Many thanks.
