Dear Mr Neathercote,

This Local Planning Authority does not notify neighbours in writing of planning applications. Instead all applications are published on the weekly list, which is printed in West Sussex Gazette and are available to view on the planning section of the Council's website.

Yellow site notices for this application were posted on 19-12-2019 on a telegraph pole to the front of the site, on a road sign opposite the prison and on the entrance sign to the industrial estate.

Regards

Anita Gardner

Dear Ms Gardner,

Were letters supposed to have been sent out to local residents advising them of this proposed development, as I am not aware of anyone local here having received one? Furthermore, I have not seen yellow notices posted either? Have they been?

With regards
