Dear Ms Gardner,

Thank you for your explanation, but this is not always the case and I have often seen council replies listed as representations. I mentioned this here as I had a meeting with some of my neighbours last evening and we wanted to know why no one (including the parish council) had made any representation on this planning application. It took us a while to find the parish council reply, but I suspect many people will miss it. The council speaks for us all here on this one, but I suspect that our wishes will be completely ignored as usual.

With thanks and regards

Dear Mr Neathercote,

The Parish comments have been correctly indexed on the web site.

All Parish/Town Council comments in relation to planning applications are recorded as consultation responses, not representations, since they are consulted on all planning applications. Third parties make representations, but are not formally consulted.

Regards

Anita

Dear Ms Gardner,

Clymping Parish Council have posted a very strongly worded 'Objection' to this planning application, as representatives of the local community, but their reply has been hidden as a 'CONSULTATION' document, which it is not. Can you please list it as a 'REP LETTER' so others can more easily identify it.

With thanks and regards
