Dear Ms Gardner

I have submitted an objection to this planning application.

The applicants are claiming that they are serving the same customers as the Arundel Gardener and they would therefore like similar Sunday trading hours. At present The Bald Kitchen is allowed to open 77.5 hours a week. Of these hours, nearly half (34.5) are when the garden centre is closed so we do not feel this is a valid argument for longer working hours. The Bald Kitchen's main clientele are not Arundel Gardener customers. If you look at google review comments – people are driving 1 – 1.5 hours to buy a burger and milkshake. They are not people visiting the garden centre and then deciding to stay for refreshments.

The occupants of the adjacent, listed building are already suffering increased noise and lack of privacy from the establishment of this business at the west end of the site. They are also under threat of a carwash being built. They deserve to have a few hours on a Sunday afternoon, free from this kind of intrusion.

Yours sincerely

Rachel Grimwood
