Hi Anita

Many thanks for clarifying.

Please can we withdraw the listed building application (CM/7/19/L) as it is a repeat of the last and just proceed with the planning application (CM/6/19/HH).

Many thanks
Sarah

Hi Sarah,

The application dates were pushed back when the red edge was amended. The applications now expire on 03-05-2019 and should hopefully be determined by that date. If an extension of time is required for any reason I will come back to you.

The application was treated as both a householder and listed building application since that was the type of application form submitted.

Regards

Anita

Hi Anita

I'm aware that a decision on the planning application for Mill Cottage is due tomorrow (CM/6/19/HH). Please can you confirm you are aiming to meet that date and grant permission. If you wish to seek an extension please let us know and if for any reason you have concerns that may result in a refusal please can you let us know so we can address these and agree an extension. That said, we have submitted the same scheme that was granted Listed Building consent in November 2018 (CM 23/18/ L) so I would be surprised if it was refused planning permission.

Im also confused as to why a second Listed Building consent application has been created (CM/7/19/L) given the same scheme was already granted Listed Building consent in Nov 2018 (CM/23/18/L), presumably this is not required?

Please confirm the above.

Best
Sarah

Dear Sarah,

I am in the process of writing my officer report for the above application. The decision should be made shortly and I apologise for the delay in determination. Would you be agree to an extension of time on the application until 19-03-2019 on this basis?

Please could you confirm your agreement by return?

Regards
