Dear Sir/Madam

Town & Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)
Town & Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015

First floor extension and changes to cladding and finishes.
St Briac South Strand East Preston

Thank you for your internet representation made on 13th January 2020 which has been recorded as 'an objection' with the comments as follows:

I am commenting on behalf of the East Preston and Kingston Preservation Society.

The Society does not object to the proposed rear extension. It does, however, object to the proposed materials. The use of grey Cedral cladding to replace the existing wooden cladding would introduce a material that is alien to its surroundings. Combined with the new windows, it would create grey walls, which would not harmonise with the clay tiles of the roof.

These materials would not harmonise in colour and texture with the materials used in the surrounding area. Their use would therefore be incompatible with policy D DM1 of the Local Plan.

This application should therefore be refused. It could be approved if materials which harmonised with the surroundings were adopted.

All representations are published on our website so please make sure your views are clear and only include information that you are happy for the public to view. Do not include personal information or information from third parties unless you have their permission to do so. Do not include information that is defamatory or breaches equality or other legislation. If you do not wish your comments to appear on the website and on the file, please confirm this in writing and I will arrange for it to be destroyed, although this does mean that its contents will be disregarded. For details of what we do with your personal information please refer to our privacy statement comments on planning applications which is available on our website www.arun.gov.uk/planning-privacy-statements.

In the event of a subsequent written representations appeal, against a refusal of planning permission on a householder application, any representations made on the application will be automatically forwarded to the Secretary of State. Unlike all other types of appeal, there will be no further opportunity to comment at the appeal stage.

Yours faithfully
