Dear Anita

On a personal matter and not one of Caldotec, I wanted to get clarification from you on the above mentioned application. I am concerned to see that they have asked to amend the planning approved drawings relating to the boundary wall. The application is asking to retain the rendered wall to our boundary rather than as approved, to have this in flint.

Firstly should this not be a Non material amendment? And secondly, I feel the mix of materials along the boundary wall between the site and The Old Forge and Forge House will look untidy and not in keeping.

The rendered part was purely there as this was part of the existing house. Now that the house has gone, I do not feel that keeping this rendered part is acceptable.

I would appreciate your thoughts on this.

Kind regards
Emma
