Dear Mr Holman,

Firstly I apologise for the delay in determining your application. My Colleague Andrew Wood has now been allocated this application. I am e-mailing to request an extension of time until 6th September for application EP/22/19/PL. Following my colleagues return next week once he has had a chance to look at the application he better be able to discuss the application with you and let you know when he will be able to determine this by.

I look forward to your reply to this e-mail today if possible. When you reply please could you reply to all so that my colleague Andrew Wood and the Area Manager are also copied in.

Yours sincerely
