You are now applying for a totally different development.

Can you please withdraw the current application by return of email and re-apply for the development you wish to carry out.

On the basis of what you have submitted in this email I cannot see any objections to the development.

Good Afternoon Andrew,

Firstly my apologies in the delay in responding, and having seen the site and look again at the drawings, it would appear that the assembly drawings indicated the front, but actually the proposal is much more simplified and indeed just replacing the balcony to the rear.

We therefore acknowledge the drawings were incorrect and have been amended accordingly and attached herewith, drawing number 8826-01 Rev B, hence the tree will not be affected in any way.

Please advise if this drawing can be replaced or indeed the application may need to be re-advertised, but the amendments in replacing the existing to the rear I would assume can be easily supported rather than a new balcony as previously indicated.

I look forward to your thoughts and how best to proceed on the above, regards
