Hello Kathryn,

I hope this email finds you well.

I've just checked the details in the attached, and wanted to clarify a few points, as I'm not sure whether the description is quite right. We are applying to extend the loft space by doing a hip to gable conversion and adding a dormer to the rear. Also, the lean to porch is at the side of the property when looking at it from the road although it is on the side of the house the main door is on. Just not sure if it's the 'front' as it's on the face of the property the 'front door' is on.

Kind regards

Katy Lake
